SYMPHONETTE STRINGS TO PERFORM TUESDAY

The University Symphonette Strings, comprised of 22 instrumentalists from the full University Symphonette orchestra, will present an evening of "Music from the Baroque Period" Tuesday (Nov. 1) at 8:15 p.m. in the University of Montana Recital Hall.

Prof. Eugene Andrie, director of the group, will share the podium with assistant conductors Arthur Griesel and William Simmons, both graduate assistants in music.

Prof. Andrie will conduct Henry Purcell's Fantasia upon one note and Georg Philipp Telemann's Suite for Flute and String Orchestra. Flutist for the Telemann work is Connie Riepl, junior music major from Missoula.

Griesel will conduct Bach's Brandenburg Concerto No. 6 in B-Flat Major, and Simmons will direct Giovanni Pergolesi's Concertina in G Major. Solo instrumentalists for the latter work are Ann Wright, Missoula, and Carol Ash, Butte, violinists; Gary Funk, Portland, Ore., violist, and Fred Inman, Billings, cellist.

The program is open to the public without charge, according to Laurence Perry, acting chairman of the Music Department.
